

Wind blade cutting process: from beginning through transport

1. View of blades at origin prior to cutting

Transfer of blade to sawmill truck 2.

Blade is placed on supports in preparation for cutting

3.

A cut is made near the hub using a technique with no environmental impact

4.

5. Segmentation of the narrow part of the blade without the generation of harmful dust particles

6.

Transfer of cut segments to the truck for transport

7. Blade segments headed to our facilities

8.

Transformation of wind park waste to exclusive furniture thanks to Sostylair.eu